BCI AIRCRAFT LEASING, INC. ACQUIRES THREE BOEING 767-300ERs
Aircraft on Lease to TUI AG

November 16, 2005 – BCI Aircraft Leasing, Inc. today announced the acquisition of three Boeing 767-300ER aircraft subject to operating leases with TUI AG. The transaction, valued at US$90 million, was financed by BCI and a syndicate of commercial lenders.

“We are honored to have TUI as a customer and we look forward to providing them with creative and competitive financial products,” said Erik Dahmen, Managing Director, Europe & Middle East, for BCI Aircraft Leasing, Inc.

In recent months, BCI Aircraft Leasing has been aggressively acquiring aircraft worldwide and the TUI announcement reinforces that momentum.

“We are proud to welcome TUI to our growing list of esteemed airline partners as we conclude a year of significant fleet expansion,” said Craig Papayanis, Managing Director of BCI Aircraft Leasing. “This deal marks a very positive addition to our already deep presence in Europe.”

BCI Aircraft Leasing, Inc. was founded in 1997 and since then has become one of the largest and fastest growing privately-held operating leasing companies in commercial aviation, with an ever-growing portfolio of commercial aircraft. BCI provides airlines with financial products and services to help them achieve their financial and fleet planning goals. BCI's customer list includes leading airlines such as Air France, KLM Royal Dutch Airlines, Delta Airlines, Southwest Airlines and many other prominent air carriers around the world.
